

POLICY ON CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING MATERIALITY OF EVENTS

1. BACKGROUND

In terms of Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulation, 2015, the Company has formulated a Policy on determination of Materiality of events or information that warrant disclosure to investors.

2. AUTHORITY TO KEY MANAGERIAL PERSONNEL

The Board of Directors of the Company have authorised the Chief Financial Officer and the Company Secretary (Authorized Persons) to determine the materiality of an event or information and to make appropriate disclosure on a timely basis. The Authorised Persons are also empowered to seek appropriate counsel or guidance, as and when necessary, from other internal or external stakeholders as they may deem fit.

The Authorized Persons will ascertain the materiality of such event or information based on the above guidelines. On completion of the assessment, the Authorized Persons shall make appropriate disclosure(s) to the Stock Exchanges.

Guidelines for Assessing Materiality

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances pertaining to the event or information.

- A. Event or information to be disclosed without any application of the guidelines for materiality are specified in Annexure A to this Policy.
- B. Event or information that is to be disclosed based on materiality principle are specified in Annexure B to this Policy.

The following criteria will be applicable for determination of materiality of the event or information:

- a) The omission of an event or information which is likely to:
 - result in a discontinuity or alteration of an event already available publicly; or
 - result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- b) In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company/ the Authorised Persons, the event / information ought to be disclosed
 - In case it becomes difficult to arrive at a decision based on qualitative criteria as stated in points a) and b) above, the same may be considered material for disclosure, upon meeting materiality thresholds as mentioned herein below:
 - For events specified in Annexure B of this Policy, if the impact of the occurrence of such an event would exceed 5% of the gross standalone turnover of the Company, in the immediately preceding accounting year
 - For events specified in Annexure B of this Policy with respect to a Subsidiary of the Company, if the impact of the occurrence of such an event would exceed 5% of the gross consolidated turnover of the Company, in the immediately preceding accounting year.
- C. As specified in Para C of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, the Company shall promptly disclose any other information/event viz., major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the financial statements of the Company and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the

3. Guidance on Timing of an Event or Information

The Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event/information can be said to have occurred. In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions, etc. and the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information. In the former, the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval. In the latter, the events/information can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of the Company has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties. Here, the term 'officer' shall have the same meaning as defined under the Companies Act, 2013 and shall also include promoter of the listed entity.

4. Policy Review

The Company may review the Policy from time to time based on Listing Regulations. Material changes to the Policy will need the approval of the Board of Directors.
